

Original Version	Showing Changes	Final Version
Originally from Texas, Catherine Lott moved to Arizona two years ago. She finds the mountains and pine trees to be both beautiful and refreshing. In 1986, Catherine started her real estate career and she ran her own company from 1998-2013 as a land service broker. Upon earning her Arizona Real Estate license, Catherine chose the Connections Realty brokerage based on the superior technology, syndicated listings and virtual office features. Research of the local market, encouraged her to jump on board with Connections Realty because they provide the best possible platform for her clients. Her twenty-eight years as a real estate expert combined with the latest technology and services from Connections have made her an unmatched agent in the field. Catherine's been a hard worker her entire life and she makes it her priority to diligently help others attain their real estate goals. Catherine feels that homes are not just property, but rather a respite, shelter, a place to make and keep memories and a good investment. She listens intently to her clients' needs and wants in order to find them the closest possible match to what they are requesting. When she isn't showing houses, meeting with contacts or at the closing table, Catherine enjoys gardening, riding horses, travel, and photography. Call her today to find your dream home!!	Originally from Texas, Catherine Lott moved to Arizona two years ago and fell in love with it. She finds the Flagstaff's mountains and pine trees to be both beautiful and refreshing. In 1986, Catherine started her real estate career in 1986 and she ran her own company from 11998-2013 as a land service broker. Upon earning her Arizona Rreal Eestate license, Catherine chose the Connections Realty brokerage based on the superior technology, syndicated listings, and virtual office features. Research of the local market, encouraged her to jump on board with Connections Realty because they provide the best possible platform for her clients. Her Catherine's twenty-eight28 years as a real estate expert, combined with the latest technology and services from Connections, have made make her an unmatched agent in the field. Catherine's been a hard worker her entire life and she makes it her priority to diligently helping others attain their real estate goals. Catherine feels She believes that homes are not just property, but rather also a respite, a shelter, a place to make and keep memories, and as well as an important good investment. She listens intently to her clients' needs and wants and dreams in order to so she can help them find them their closest possible matchmatch to what they are requesting. When she isn't showing houses, meeting with contacts, or at the closing table, Catherine enjoys gardening, riding horses, travel, and photography. Call her Catherine today to find your dream home!! 928-555-1111	Catherine Lott moved to Arizona two years ago and fell in love with it. She finds Flagstaff's mountains and pine trees beautiful and refreshing. Catherine started her real estate career in 1986 and ran her own company from 1998-2013 as a land service broker. Upon earning her Arizona real estate license, Catherine chose the Connections Realty brokerage based on the superior technology, syndicated listings, and virtual office features. Research of the local market encouraged her to jump on board with Connections Realty because they provide the best possible platform for her clients. Catherine's 28 years as a real estate expert, combined with the latest technology and services from Connections, have make her an unmatched agent in the field. Catherine's priority is helping others attain their real estate goals. She believes that homes are not just property, but also a respite, a shelter, a place to make and keep memories, as well as an important investment. She listens intently to her clients' needs and wants and dreams so she can help them find their closest possible match. When she isn't showing houses, meeting with contacts, or at the closing table, Catherine enjoys gardening, riding horses, travel, and photography. Call Catherine today to find your dream home!! 928-555-1111